THE GREEN CAPS AND THE VEGE CAPS

Are you interested in environmental issues or growing vegetables?

Are you keen to become a Knighton Normal School leader?

GREEN CAPS	VEGE CAPS	COMPOST MONITORS
WHO: 4 children chosen per class (Two children will be a Vege cap for terms 1 & 2 the other two will be for terms 3 & 4)	WHO: 1 child chosen per class (The child will be a Vege Cap for the year and will need to be committed to attending meetings to grow plants through the seasons)	WHO: 8 children chosen from the middle school (Four children will be a Compost Monitor for terms 1 & 2 the other four will be for terms 3 & 4)
WHEN: Meet once per fortnight during some lunchtimes and middle school assembly time.	WHEN: Meet once per week from 12-12.30pm at the vege garden.	WHEN: Meet every day at the end of the lunch break.
WHAT: How can we encourage more native birds, insects and butterflies into our school? What projects can we look at to make Knighton a school that is friendly towards its environment?	WHAT: Learn about being involved in the cycle of germinating seeds, planting, harvesting, cooking and sharing the harvest with others.	WHAT: Learn about the purpose of composting and how it supports a garden to flourish.

YOU NEED TO BE:

- Enthusiastic and interested in the environment.
- Happy to talk to classes about your projects
- An organised person
- Happy to come up with ideas and design things
- Be persistent and not give up easily

Talk with your parents/caregivers. Fill out the form below and give it to your teacher. This shows you are interested in the job! This form needs to be returned to your teacher no later than MONDAY 9th March. Miss Brydon
